Welcome to Los Cabos!

Situated at the southern tip of Mexico's Baja Peninsula, Los Cabos is where the Pacific Ocean blends with the Sea of Cortez. Comprised of two smaller towns, Cabo San Lucas and San Jose del Cabo, Los Cabos is a destination that offers mountain ranges, desert landscape, white-sand beaches, azure seas and unique rock formations such as El Arco ... the area's signature landmark.

A Unique Blend of Outdoor Excitement

Discover San José del Cabo, a quaint village lined with charming boulevards. Explore an abundance of shops, interesting museums and restaurants in the town of Cabo San Lucas.

Nestled between San José del Cabo and Cabo San Lucas are twenty magnificent white-sand beaches, including Lovers Beach — the only place in existence where you can walk between the Pacific Ocean and the Sea of Cortez.

Los Cabos is a first class game fishing destination. Discover why this region is commonly referred to as “Marlin Alley.” From January to March, Los Cabos is one of the best whale watching destinations in the world.

A Golfer's Paradise

Los Cabos is a premier golf destination with courses designed by some of the biggest names in the game such as Tom Weiskopf and Robert Trent Jones II. Combining challenging play with panoramic ocean views and natural desert terrain, Los Cabos is one of North America's hottest golf destinations that pits your skills against a myriad of conditions that challenge even the most confident golfers.
